

Meeting Summary

Aug 10 15:48:50

The European Commission launched the act accelerator in April. President van der Luyn is co-chairing the council. The commission's efforts under its leadership have been very critical in moving forward this agenda. Dr. Terrors, Dr. Tedros and Dr. van der Luyn are the co-chairs of the council and they are proud of the progress made in the last four months. The council is meeting today to discuss the future of the commission and the commission's work in the fight against the COVID-19 virus pandemic. Dr. Terrors is the director of the World Health Organization. She is grateful to the world leaders who have committed support and resources at the pledging event on the 4th of May and on the 22nd and 27th of June. Dr. Tedros is also grateful to Dr. Tedros the director general of the World Health Organization for the excellent cooperation and drive in taking the project forward. Dr. Terrors is also thankful to all the people and organizations involved in delivering on the act accelerators goals. Dr. Tedros and Dr. Tedros are also grateful for the support of the European Commission, the European Union, the WHO and the European Parliament. The World Health Organization and foundations are pledging resources and committing to universal and universal and affordable access to tests treatments and vaccines for the virus. Dr. Terrors and Dr. Tedros are grateful for their support and support for the project. The meeting will discuss the progress of the project in the past four months and the progress already made. The conference will be held on the 28th of June. in Brussels. The commission will meet on the 30th of the same day to discuss how the project can be expanded. to the EU, the EU and the United States. The European Commission will also meet in Brussels on the 31st of the month to discuss a joint response to the crisis in the Middle East and the EU. The EU will also discuss the response of the EU to the climate change and climate change in the EU's response to climate change. It will be discussed at the meeting on the 2nd of July. \xa0 \xa0in Brussels and \xa0the European Commission is also meeting with the EU on the 3rd of July to discuss its response to global warming and the climate crisis in Europe and the South of Europe. It will discuss how they can work together on climate change, the environment, the economy and the environment.